

Luke Ch 1.

One day while serving in the Temple,
People prayed outside the veil,
An angel came to Zacharias,
"Do not fear, I will not fail,
Elizabeth your wife, though barren,
Will have a son his name is John."
His faith was weak he could not speak,
Until his child he looked upon.

Later Gabriel came to Mary,
A virgin girl, chosen by God,
To carry in her womb the Savior,
Who for our sins would bear the rod.
Said, " Mary you are highly favored,
Blessed are you to bear this child,
He will be, Son of the Highest,
Yet He will be meek and mild."

"How can this be?" she asked the angel,
I know naught of any man."
"The Holy Spirit will come to you,
Let Jehovah take command.
He'll overshadow you completely,
Blest you'll be throughout the years."
As she then remembered Joseph,
Her mind was filled with many fears.

Joseph loved his Mary dearly,
Yet embarrassed at the thought,
Willing to divorce her quietly,
Dreading the pain this news had brought.
Then an angel, while he's sleeping,
Said, "Now Joseph, do not fear,
This is of the Holy Spirit,
For this child you'll need to care."
